

The Association for Public Transportation

Proudly announces the release of the 10th edition of

Car-Free[®] in Boston

To be presented and distributed at the Annual membership and public outreach meeting
To be held at

The John Hancock Conference Center 40 Trinity Place, 2nd floor library

Off Stuart St. between Clarendon and Dartmouth Sts.
Easily reached from the MBTA Green Line Copley or Orange Line Back Bay stations

Wednesday, May 21, 2003

Doors open 5:30, call to order 6:00 PM

Guest speakers featuring the Arborway Committee
And a case study in local advocacy

Followed by

An open invitation to local citizen advocacy groups to present their transportation issues to attendees
Along with a state-of-the-organization address

All interested parties welcome and encouraged to present information on current public transportation happenings

Refreshments will be served

For more information, call the APT voice mail 617-482-0282

Or visit on the web www.car-free.com

And subscribe to our e-mail bulletin board

APT is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that has advocated for better mass transit for over 25 years
A voting member of the Boston Metropolitan Planning Organization's
(MPO) Regional Transportation Advisory Council (RTAC)